Dr Ashhurst and Prof. Long have been working and presenting together for over 30 years. Their books and videos have extraordinary downloads and interest. Both have extensive experience working at executive, middle and operator levels in organisations in : Mining, Construction, Government, Corrections, non-Government services, Logistics and Manufacturing.

Structure

The four-part program will look at the following-leading dynamic at three levels in Workspace, Headspace and Groupspace. This is also connected to the APS model of Executive, Middle Manager and Operator (see map)
